AGED MAN SEEKS DAUGHTER

In search of his daughter, Mrs. Mattie B. Barnes, who is said to live in Clark County, Elisha B. James, an aged man, was brought to Paris, Saturday, by parties who found him wandering aimlessly near Escandida, in this county.

James said he had been living in Arkansas several years, and that he came to Kentucky on a visit, and to try to locate his daughters. He had information that Mrs. Barnes was residing near Clintonville. He set out on foot to try to locate her, but in this he was unsuccessful. He wandered from one farm to another seeking, like Evangeline, "to locate the missing one," but to no avail. He was hospitably treated at every place he stopped, and everyone tried to assist him in locating his daughter. The last information he had was to the effect that Mrs. Barnes was residing on a farm near Winchester. After a conference with city and county officials, Mr. James left for Winchester to continue his search.

THINKS KENTUCKY MOST WONDERFUL STATE.

Louis Grosche, who has just returned to Paris after a long stay at the Mayo Bros. Hospital, in Rochester, Minn., states that the "natives" of that city have a wonderful impression of Kentucky as an agricultural State. After reading his copy of THE NEWS, Mr. Grosche turned it over to a bunch of Rochester men, who, after reading of high prices of farm lands and tobacco, came to the conclusion that everyone who came from the State must be millionaires. One of the men, in commenting on the tobacco sales, stated: "I have always heard of what a great State Kentucky is, but when the farmers get ninety-nine cents and some of them one dollar a pound for their tobacco, and farming lands sell for $500 an acre, I'm saying to you, young fellow, that State of yours must be a wonderful one." With pardonable pride Grosche answered that it was a wonderful State, and that Bourbon county was one of the most wonderful spots in the wonderful State.
